Bright Future Scholarship Application Information Sheet, Continued – Page 2

Please note the following tips for working in the Microsoft Word format:

- Do not re-create the document.
- Sections are organized into tables. You may add rows as needed. This may add pages, which is acceptable. Be sure to add your name to additional pages (see last bullet point).
- If the text within a cell exceeds that cell, the document is set to expand that cell.
- Please be sure this has occurred when you print your application. Please do not alter the formatted page breaks.
- Please be certain to check for required name fields as the area normally at the top of the page where the field has been originally placed may shift as the document expands with text.

TIPS AND SUGGESTIONS

As you complete your application, please keep these things in mind:

- Leadership and service are top considerations in this application.
- Correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling throughout the application and essay are exceedingly important. Use your spell check and proof for errors.
- The essay is weighted heavily for content as well as grammatical construction.
- Details are necessary and helpful to those evaluating your application.
- Instructions given on the application must be followed explicitly for application to be considered.
- You are presenting yourself in the present as well as the future. In other words, this is who I am now and who I expect to become.

PERSONAL INTERVIEW

Applicants should be aware that a personal interview may be required as part of the selection process. If needed, you will be contacted at the phone number provided on your application.

YWCA Bright Future Scholarships will be awarded March 1, 2021.
